

iuraverse Dispute Resolution

Access to Justice

About Us

iuraverse - ADR to ODR

The Covid 19 pandemic has been extremely unfortunate and has necessitated change. This change embraced the integration of technology into the justice system due to which justice is now no longer associated with a place. In this way, the availability of technology has prepared India for a potentially game-changing transformation in the justice delivery framework - Online Dispute Resolution.

iuraverse is a Dispute Resolution Platform that helps ADR (Alternate Dispute Resolution) professionals to conduct Arbitration and mediation more effectively, and remotely with expanded reach and increased business efficiency.

A Home for All ADR Professionals

iuraverse has grown to include 50+ professionals and 20+ organizations engaged in Alternate Dispute Resolution. From Attorneys to compliance professionals, in-house counsel, and subject matter experts – all ADR professionals interested in Arbitration, Mediation and policy-making are welcome.

We are a premier start-up and association for all interested in ADR. We invite you to join iuraverse, enhance your business reach, and get exclusive access to various resources.
